

Dangerous Goods Training (Recurrent) for 7.3 / Role c

Personnel responsible for processing or accepting dangerous goods consignments

Target Audience

Staff members of freight forwarders responsible for processing or accepting dangerous goods consignments, who have completed the initial or recurrent course within a period of 24 months.

Objective

Upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

- Know the significant changes and amendments in the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations
- Apply the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations correctly
- Understand the limitation for the carriage of dangerous goods by air in accordance with the IATA Regulations
- Identify and detect hidden dangerous goods
- Recognize and apply the appropriate state and or operator variations
- Identify the information about hazard classes of dangerous goods
- Navigate through the list of dangerous goods and apply the information contained
- Verify if Packages conform to Packing Instruction
- Verify that packaging complies with specifications indicated on the package
- Verify if marking and labelling requirements have been met
- Verify the necessary transport documents are in accordance with the IATA Regulations
- Verify package condition
- Correctly complete an acceptance checklist
- Report incidents/ accidents/occurrences and mis-declared dangerous goods

Course Format

- This is an 18-hour classroom training course.
- This course is delivered by an IATA approved instructor.
- Students' performance will be based on assessment.

Course Content

- General Philosophy
- Applicability
- Limitations
- Classification
- Identification
- Packing
- Packing Specifications and Performance Tests
- Marking and Labelling
- Documentation
- Handling
- Radioactive Materials
- Basic knowledge of Lithium Batteries
- Emergency Response

Certificate

An IATA Electronic Secure Digital Award (SDA) and a Menzies Macau training certificate will be awarded to the participants who have completed the course and passed the assessment.